UMKC Makes Leadership Change in Women's Basketball

KANSAS CITY, Mo. – UMKC Director of Athletics Carla Wilson announced Wednesday that women's basketball head coach Marsha Frese will be relieved of her duties effective immediately. Frese was 47-101 in five seasons as the Roos head coach.

"After careful review, I have made the difficult decision to make a change in the women's basketball program," Wilson said. "I want to thank Marsha and her staff for their efforts over the past five years. Her commitment to high academic standards and to community service were outstanding. Unfortunately, under her leadership, the expectations for competitive success have not been met. I wish Marsha and her staff all the best in their future endeavors."

A national search for the next UMKC women's basketball head coach will begin immediately.
